Eco Church reminder – Don't forget we're going for Gold!

Whether aiming for Gold or not we all need to be aware of how many food miles are being used when buying our groceries. Lots of British grown fruit and vegetables are available throughout the summer months so please don't forget to check where your fruit and veg is grown and buy local wherever possible. Try to buy locally reared meats and other farm products as well. It all helps!

Hewenden Benefice Fantasy Football competition 2025/2026 season – message from Pauline Stern

"66 people from across the Benefice and Diocese entered the competition this season with folk from all four areas of the Benefice represented in the top four places in the final.

I hope that all those who participated enjoyed being part of the competition. Despite the fact that my own choices left me fighting for (and just losing my grasp on) the wooden spoon, I think I have coped with the challenge of taking on Richard Burge's weekly spreadsheet. Richard has supported me throughout the process for which I am very grateful, especially when it came to the FA cup and the play offs. If anyone else feels equal to taking over the challenge for next season I will be very grateful to them and give them every assistance."

Please email me if you'd like to 'have a go'. Pstern155@gmail.com

Prayer House Group The Prayer House Group will meet at Cullingworth Vicarage on Monday 8th June at 7pm.

- All those who lead and prepare worship in our churches, especially Revds Alison and Liz;
- Revd Daniel and his family;

- emergency response workers;
